Memorial Sermon.

The pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, spoke earnestly saying in part:

My friends in behalf of this church, I gladly welcome you here today I trust this season of fellowship may prove mutually profitable. I shall be glad to know you better. I am ten tifues more anxious you should know my Lord better. "The Lord is in his holy temple, let all the earth keep silent before Him." Man's highest honor is, that he is created in the image of his maker and the image is marked and scarred. Man's highest bonor is, that he is created in the image consists in this: He may have fellowship with his maker. This is our privilege now.
